2014 Distinguished Graduate

Vanessa Howe Social Work

"I think the reward for conformity is that everyone likes you except yourself."

-Rita Mae Brown

Biography

Vanessa Howe began her academic career at SAC several years ago, and the knowledge she has obtained has helped her focus on the right field to delve into professionally.

Vanessa began taking her pre-requisites for the nursing program and discovered an avid love for learning all subjects, especially those that involved sociology. Advancing in her hours gave her greater knowledge in every skill, but she found a great affinity for writing, leading her to a certificate in Writing Excellence after completing English 1302.

Vanessa applied to the Writing Center for a work-study position and has now worked there for a year and will obtain a certificate for a Level 3 Writing Tutor at the end of the semester. She has kept a 4.0 GPA by applying great conviction to her studies and looks forward to being a Distinguished Graduate so she can assist peers to graduate with confidence and poise.
